

- Paper should be written in any version of Word text editor.
- Text with figures and tables should be prepared in the following format:
 - paper size – 17 x 24 cm
 - mirror margins:
 - up – 2.8 cm
 - down – 3.0 cm
 - inside – 2.0 cm
 - outsider – 2.5 cm
 - header – 2 cm
 - footer – 2.4 cm
- Text of the manuscript should be written using Times New Roman font, size 12 pt, line spacing 1.0, justified. Insert of the first line of paragraph is 1.25 cm. Hyphenation should be on.
- Title, authors' names and affiliations should be given at the beginning of the paper.
- Chapters' titles should be numbered using Times New Roman, bold, 14 pt, line spacing 1.0, left-aligned, no hyphenation, no period, paragraph spacing: before 12 pt, after 6 pt.
- Subchapters' titles should be numbered: 1.1., 1.2, using Times New Roman, bold, 12 pt, line spacing 1.0, left-aligned, no hyphenation, no period, paragraph spacing: before 6 pt, after 6 pt.
- Equations should be centred and numbered right-aligned, eg.:

$$a + b = c \tag{1}$$

where:

a – ...

b – ...,etc.

- Figures should be placed in the text and their size should not exceed format given in point 2 and should be numbered. Titles should be formatted using Times New Roman, 11 pt, line spacing 1.0, left-aligned, no period, paragraph spacing: before 6 pt, after 0 pt:

Fig. 1. Figure description

- Tables should be placed in the text and should fit in format given in point 2. Titles should be numbered and formatted (Times New Roman, 11 line spacing 1.0, left-aligned), no period, paragraph spacing: before 0 pt, after 6 pt.:

Table 1. Table title

- Citations of literature references in the text should be noted in parentheses stating the author's name and year of publication of cited position. Eg. (Smith et al. 2012, Smith & Jones 2009, Jones 2013).
- The last chapter of the paper (not numbered) is References formatted using Times New Roman 11 pt, line spacing 1,0, justified, indentation 0 cm, hanging 0,75 cm. Names in alphabetical order. References should be given using APA format, eg.:

References

Smith, C., Jones, A., Wilson, S. (2012). Title. City: Publisher.

Jones, A., & Wilson, S. (2009). Title. Journal Name, Nr, page-page.

Please pay special attention to correct spelling of names of authors and journals, which is crucial in the process of citations indexing.

- At the end of paper Polish translation of the paper title, if possible, should be given. Next abstract in English and in Polish (if possible) should be given, both of 350 words minimum. Abstract format is Times New Roman 11 pt, line spacing 1,0, justified.
- Under abstracts keywords should be given (also in Polish if possible).
Eg.:

Słowa kluczowe:

mikroglony, wody osadowe, przyrost biomasy

Keywords:

microalgae, reject water, growth rate

- Also, if possible, please translate all titles of figures and tables into Polish.